Please take the time to answer these questions thoughtfully and honestly.

1) What happened? Report just the facts. Please be as objective as possible, and leave anything emotional out of your answer.

2) A. How are you feeling about this issue? Please be as descriptive as possible.

B. How do you believe any others involved are feeling right now? (E.g. teacher, students, friend, etc.)

3) A. What do you believe that you need right now in order to get back to being a productive and wonderful member of the school community? Why? (E.g. safety, time, a new seat, etc.)

B. What do you believe that others involved might need in order to welcome you back into the school community? (E.g. Teachers need to teach, principal and school community need safety, etc.) Why?

4) What was the impact of this event on your class? Other students? Your teacher? Your family?

5) UPCS culture is safe, respectful, embracing of diversity, sharing, caring, mature, academic, and social. Were you meeting these expectations at the time of the event? How? And how were you not meeting them?

6) COMPROMISE:

A. How can you and the faculty agree to move forward in a way that meets the basic needs of all involved?

B. How can you and your peers agree to move forward in a way that meets the basic needs of all involved?

7) Are there other things that you would like to add to your reflection before your return to the school community?
