

Are Any of These Statements Currently Familiar to You?

1. "It's hard to focus on instruction when the kids' behavior is a constant concern."
2. "I feel like I'm drowning in management tasks"
3. "I'm struggling to keep up with the demands of the job."
4. "Every day feels like a new battle."
5. "I'm overwhelmed by constant new challenges."

1

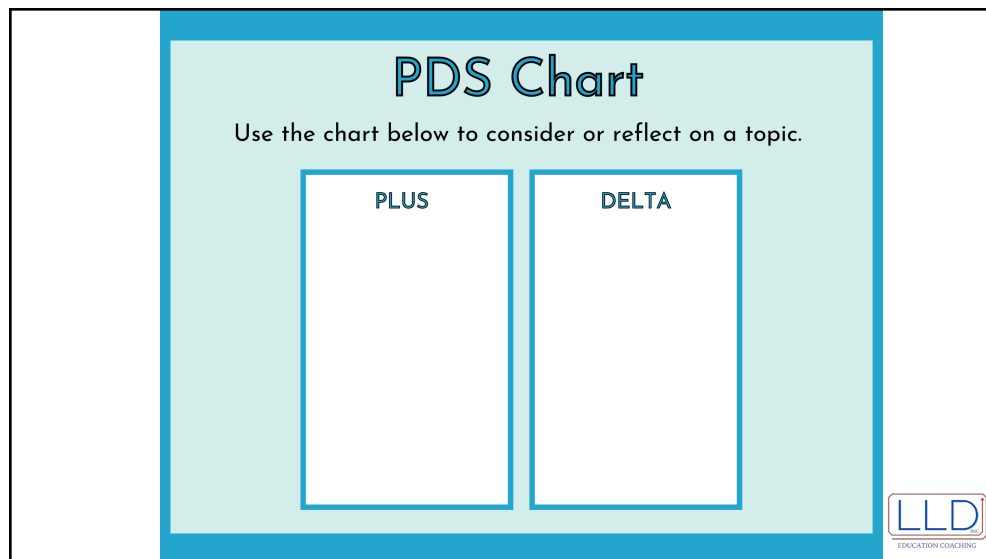

Remember, when tackling problems, don't try to do it all by yourself. Seek help from others, because together, we build stronger solutions.

2

3

4

Directions

Identify two grade-level colleagues to work with.

Collaborate to develop a PDS Chart. Bring your posted notes but avoid redundancy.

Have discussions but when talking about the deltas, don't focus on solutions.

5

PDS Chart

Use the chart below to consider or reflect on a topic.

PLUS

DELTA

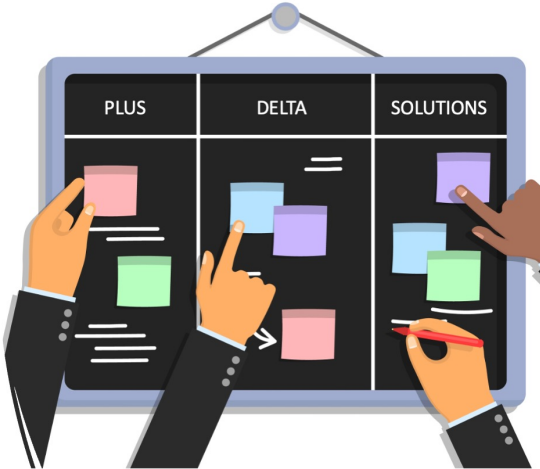

SOLUTION

6

Directions

1. Go to each poster and offer a solution(s)/resources per delta. (10 Mins)
2. Reconvene with your team and discuss solutions. (5 Mins)
3. Reflection (5 Mins)

The illustration shows a flipchart with three columns labeled 'PLUS', 'DELTA', and 'SOLUTIONS'. The 'PLUS' column contains a pink sticky note and a green sticky note. The 'DELTA' column contains a blue sticky note, a purple sticky note, and a pink sticky note, with an equals sign and an arrow pointing to the right. The 'SOLUTIONS' column contains a purple sticky note, a blue sticky note, and a green sticky note. Three hands are shown interacting with the chart: one pointing at a pink note in the PLUS column, one pointing at a blue note in the DELTA column, and one holding a red pen over a green note in the SOLUTIONS column.

LLD
EDUCATION COACHING

7

Reflections

The illustration features a large blue thought bubble with two smaller blue circles below it, set against a light blue background with a gradient from orange at the top to blue at the bottom.

LLD
EDUCATION COACHING

8