

The Reviews Are In

The next time you go to the grocery store and see those stocked shelves, think of how many people it took to make that possible:

- FARMERS
- FACTORY WORKERS
- TRUCK DRIVERS
- GROCERY STORE WORKERS (TO NAME A FEW!)

Thanks to these hardworking people, we have access to healthy food.

And even though we don't always know everyone involved, there are some real MVPs we get to connect with.

Let's learn their names, show some gratitude, and give them some love by leaving a thoughtful review online. They deserve it!

Who's "they"? Think about all the services that you use in your life and all the opportunities to publicly show gratitude for those people:

- HEALTH-CARE WORKERS
- SALES PEOPLE
- FOOD SERVERS
- HAIRDRESSERS
- HOUSE CLEANERS
- FOOD-DELIVERY DRIVERS
- MECHANICS
- AND MANY MORE!
