

PBS Learning Media Resource Hunt

Time to fill your plate with nutritious and delicious content! Use this form to help you navigate PBS Learning Media, find media for you and your students to consume, AND help curate a collection of resources for area educators.

* Indicates required question

1. First Name*

2 Last Name*

3. Grade OR Subject You Teach*

4. If you haven't already, Open PBS Learning Media. Then complete the following tasks to navigate the website:*

Check all that apply.

- ☐ Bookmark PBS Learning Media in your browser. (optional)
- ☐ Create a teacher account (Optional; allows you to save resources, create assignments/task directly in Google Classroom, and share links with students and guardians).
- ☐ Enter your zip code/confirm your station. This will help you search by and align to state standards.

- ☐ Scroll down the whole page and see how the information is laid out and organized.
- ☐ Find the SEARCH Boxes at the top of the page.
- ☐ Find the SUBJECT and GRADE drop down menus at the top of the page.
- ☐ Scroll down and find the blue boxes that let you browse by SUBJECT and GRADE.
- ☐ Type any topic you teach into the search box.
- ☐ Look at the "FILTER" options that appear on the left.
- ☐ Scroll down to "Resource Type" and play with the options. (NOTE: "Collection" will give you whole groups of videos and resources on that topic.)

Let's find some content!

1. Think about what you'd like to find. Maybe you have a lesson coming up and need a resource; perhaps something didn't go as well as you'd hoped; maybe you just want more ways to help teach the same ideas OR you're looking to add some variety. Think about concepts and content, skills and activities you teach. Then...

2. Scroll through the following questions to get ideas of when/how you might use media. Then...

3. Start looking! Use that search box and see what you find. Finally...

4. SHARE THREE: As you find resources, share them below. You may "answer" as many of the questions as is helpful to you, but aim to answer at least THREE of the following "questions". Simply paste a link to your found resource in the answer box.

5. Find a Collection you'd use:

6. Find a Collection students would enjoy exploring:

7. Find a bell ringer to launch a new session:

8. Find a video or resource you could assign as a review:

9. Find a video or resource you could use as a Lesson Hook:

10. Find a sub day plan!!!

11. Find a potential Jigsaw set: Three or more related videos to assign to groups of students. Groups each watch a different video then regroup to share what they learned and build knowledge.

12. Find a video or resource to use a station rotation activity:

13. Find a video or resource you could send home to parents/guardians to help them talk about key concepts you're working on in class:
